

LOUDONVILLE CHRISTIAN SCHOOL 9TH GRADE SUMMER READING LIST 2016 - 2017

Book One: Read one of the following books:

- A Separate Peace by John Knowles. One all boys school, a few new friends, and the trials they face as they grow in the midst of a distant (but growing ever-closer) war.
- Little Women by Louisa May Alcott. A realistic portrayal of life growing up in the 19th century with a few eccentric sisters, belief-driven parents, and the general struggles of growing up together.
- Watership Down by Richard Adams. The story of rabbits (yes, rabbits) determined to overcome obstacles between each other and outsiders and to improve their living conditions. A readable story that has more action adventure and application to humans than you might imagine . . .
- The Hound of the Baskervilles by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Is it science? Is it fiction? Is it real? Is it dreamed? . . . There's a beast in town, and trouble is brewing . . . but can Sherlock decipher the puzzle before more lives are lost?

Book Two: You pick it! Select your own piece of literature independently OR from the recommended reading list below. Be sure that it meets the following requirements:

- New—cannot be something previously read
- At least 150 pages of text
- Any genre (autobiography, novel, Christian living, etc.)
- On or above grade level (if in doubt, research reading levels online)
- Parent approved (signature required before reading)
- You may select another novel from the required list (above), if desired.

Recommended 9th grade books:

- Cyrano de Bergerac by Edmund Rostand. This story is the timeless classic of the man, the nose, the love story . . . told with great emotion and empathy for the love-lorn Cyrano.
- The Color of Water by James McBride. A boy's quest of his mother's mysterious parentage answers questions about his own identity. The book is written in alternating chapters—his point of view and his mother's.
- The Iliad by Homer. The classic companion to The Odyssey fills in the heroic details that document the Trojan War. A tale of adventure filled with the intrigue of Greek mythology.

- The Story of My Life by Helen Keller. This dramatic biography is the first-hand account of the amazing life of the deaf and blind author, Helen Keller. Hear her incredible story of perseverance through nearly impossible circumstances.
- Samurai's Tale by Erik Haugaard. A Japanese boy grows up fast when his family dies during a time of war. He grows up to be a Samurai warrior, facing extreme danger in the name of honor.
- I am Nujood, Age 10 and Divorced by Nujood Ali and Delphine Minoui. "I am a simple village girl who has always obeyed the orders of my father and brother. Since forever, I have learned to say yes to everything. Today I have decided to say no."
- Let the Circle Be Unbroken by Mildred Taylor. A story taking place in the south during the Great Depression, this sequel to Roll of Thunder Hear My Cry shows the devastating effects of racial prejudice.
- Jacob Have I Loved by Katherine Patterson. This dramatic story of two sisters examines one sister's search for her identity as she struggles to understand who God is in her life.
- Taliesin by Stephen Lawhead. An epic tale of fantasy that previews the dawning of the Arthurian Era and is a must read for all adventure seekers!
- Life as We Knew It by Susan Pfeffer. A survivor's tale of a global disaster filled with terrifying implications on our ordinary lives
- Peter Pan by J.M. Barrie. Was Peter Pan wasn't the character Walt Disney portrayed him to be? . . . find out in the pages of this adventurous tale.
- The Princess Bride by William Goldman (A.K.A. S. Morgenstern). Rodents of Unusual Size (R.O.U.S.), quicksand, and fiery forests? Romance and adventure combine into a hilarious story enjoyed by men & women alike.
- Percy Jackson & the Olympians (Series- pick one) by Rick Riordan. A troubled boy learns he is a demigod. How cool! What is not so cool is that all sorts of mythological monsters are after him . . . yikes.
- The Hunger Games (Series- pick one) by Suzanne Collins. A story of an extremely "messy" dystopian society where "good days" are few, and survival is every resident's primary goal.
- Inkheart (Series- pick one) by Cornelia Funke. Ever wondered what would happen if book characters came to life? . . . This novel mixes reality and fiction; imagine the adventure . . .

Book two (student selection): **Be prepared to write an in-class response after reading your selected literary work. To be prepared for this in-class response, be sure you know the following information about your book.

- Characters
- Setting: the time and place
- Context: the important outside events occurring around the characters that influence the ideas in a literary work (i.e: a war, a government change, racial discrimination, a financial crisis, etc.)
- Plot: the events in a literary work and their sequence
- Themes: a major overarching or underlying idea in a literary work; an idea that an author repeats, revealing it as significant for readers to consider (ex: love, friendship, bitterness, hatred, despair, suffering, marriage, hope, death, faith, etc.)
- Motifs: an image, sound, action, idea or figure that repeats. It has symbolic significance and contributes toward a theme. Though similar to theme, it is not a central idea in a story; instead, it develops or explains a theme
- Symbols: An object representing another to give it a deeper and more significant meaning that is different from its literal sense. (Sometimes an idea, action, or event can have symbolic value) (ex: a dove could symbolize peace; a rose could symbolize hope or love; a chain could symbolize union or imprisonment, etc.)

Important Reminder: Accessing any information through outside sources, including online material, is strictly prohibited because it defeats the purpose of the assignment.

Doing so will result in a zero for a major project grade.
