THE EAGLE

I pray that God, the source of hope, will fill you completely with joy and peace because you trust in him. Then you will overflow with confident hope through the power of the Holy Spirit. Romans 15:13

Did you know that last year we had over 200 items at our Annual Auction? Items included jewelry, events, electronics, art, tools and gift certificates to restaurants, salons, shows, movies, and much, much more! All of these donations come in from members of LCS that either mail or hand-deliver a letter to local businesses. Do you have a favorite restaurant your family goes to often? Or a vacation spot that you visit every year? BUSINESSES MIGHT BE MORE APT TO DONATE TO CUSTOMERS THEY SEE ON A REGULAR BASIS. PLEASE HELP MAKE OUR AUCTION A SUCCESS BY TAKING A LETTER AND DELIVERING IT TO A BUSINESS YOU PATRONIZE. Please contact Amy Thiel at athiel@lcs.org or click here to be a part of this important event. Letters can be sent home with your student(s) or emailed directly to you! Thank you!

During this time of Re-enrollment, don't forget about the great discounts offered at LCS!

- Thinking about enrolling another child at LCS? Remember that with each additional child enrolled, you receive a 5% discount
- Have you or your spouse ever served in the military? LCS is proud to honor both active duty and veterans with a 10% tuition discount
- Are you part of the LCC community? Great news—active members of Loudonville Community Church receive a 20% discount off tuition
- Are you an 8th (up to 1999) or 12th grade graduate from LCS? Children of Alumni can have the same phenomenal experience you did while receiving a 25% discount
- And for our faithful pastors serving in full time pastoral ministry, LCS is pleased to extend a 25% discount on tuition

If you have any questions about the discounts or financial aid offered at LCS, please contact Meg Booth in admissions or Betsy Bersani in the Business Office.

Our amazing and talented high school students will be presenting a Talent Show AND Creative Bake Sale! So plan on joining us on March 2nd in the LCC Commons at 6:00 pm. High school students will be performing a variety of acts, we will have an audience participation Trivia game, and there will also be a Creative Bake Sale to view (and eat). Drinks and snacks will be available for purchase as well. Tickets are $5.00 if purchased before the event in the school office, or $7.00 at the door.

All proceeds will be used for our Fine Arts Department.

Don't miss this spectacular event!

The inevitable has finally happened. Coach Camilleri is finally retiring from teaching at LCS this coming June 30, 2017. God led me and my young family here to LCS some 38 years ago and I believe He is closing the door on this chapter of my life. I am still searching for employment, just not in the teaching field. I need to work for another 5 years before being able to financially retire to Kentucky from work full time. I covet your prayers as I seek out the job that God has for me.

Loudonville Christian School has been a family to the Camilleri's and you will be greatly missed. I still hope to come to games here at the school as I have done for the past 38 years. Old habits die hard.

Thanks for your love and support,

Bruce "Coach" Camilleri

What will LCS be remembered for?

By Pam Kuhlewind

Have you ever had a time in your life when you didn't want to hear a Bible verse? I have. Now, before you are ready to throw me into the Hudson River, let me explain. I have had Romans 8:28 memorized since I was a teenager. " Now we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them that are called according to His purpose." Almost 4 years ago, God moved my husband, Todd and me from Pa, our home of 32 years, to the Albany area. Because of leaving a daughter, son in law, dear friends, a loved church and Christian school ministry, the move was quite difficult. I couldn't clearly see the good in the Albany area. Yes, I was grateful that my husband had a job. For a time, I focused on being grateful for that and thinking that was the good. After a while though, I wasn't convinced that was the good for me. Hearing or thinking about Romans 8:28 frustrated me. "Lord, what and where is the good for me?" I asked.

The Lord answered my question of "Where is the good for me?" by providing the 6th grade teaching position at LCS. The "whats" of God's good are to have a right relationship with Him and becoming like Him as He develops my character. These have been encouraged through friendships with the LCS administration, faculty and staff and also through the devotional and prayer times that we daily share together. God's good of growing to love Him more was clearly seen through the love of many parents who gave of their time and resources to bless me with volunteering weekly for lunch/ recess duty, homeroom moms, an abundance of Christmas and thank you gifts, class auction and party donations, prayer, support and words of kindness. Showing God's love to others is another part of His good for me and it has been a joy to show and teach God's love to my 6th grade classes for the past three years. I am grateful to the past and present LCS 6th grade students for being a part of God's good for me as we learned, laughed and grew in God's love. God did work all things together for my good!

The time has come once again for God to work. Because of a job transfer for my husband, Todd and I will be relocating to North Carolina and I am sorry to say that I will not be returning in the fall to teach 6th grade. I will miss you all very much and will treasure my memories of my years here. It is another Romans 8:28 moment in my life.

Now, to answer my opening question, "What will LCS be remembered for?" For Pam Kuhlewind, Loudonville Christian School will be remembered as a place of God's goodness as God worked all things together for good.
